

Ensuring Livelihood Security Through Agro Techniques in Budhal block of Rajouri

- KVK Rajouri is undertaking a project under Tribal Sub Plan funded by the ICAR in block Budhal of Rajouri.
- About 200 farm families belonging to ST category in block Budhal have been benefitted.
- The benchmark data of the selected farmers have been collected for gathering first hand information about farming practices and current socio economic status of the farmers.

Physical Assets created

S. no	Item	Qty
1	Grain storage bins (2qts cap)	101 no's
2	Grain storage bins (1qts cap)	101 no's
3	Seed container (40 kg)	101 no's
4	Seed containers (25 kg)	101 no's
5	Power operated maize shellers (3 HP)	8 no's
6	Manual chaff cutters	10 no's
7	Maize cob shellers	450 no's
8	Spades	500 no's
9	Sickles	628 no's
10	Poly green house structures (GI Pipes with UV poly film)	10 no's

- The beneficiaries were trained to use farm implements and machinery for improving farm efficiency.
- Demonstrated the use of improved storage structures for safe storage of their farm produce
- Low cost poly green houses will be installed on community basis to promote the offseason vegetable cultivation to promote income generation among the tribal population.

Financial Achievements of Block Budhal and Poonch

Year	Amount earmarked	Expenditure
2012-13	20.0	18.50
2013-14	26.0	23.54